

RECOGNIZING JUDY HUNT FOR HER CONTRIBUTIONS TO OUR COMMUNITY

- WHEREAS, Judy Hunt has provided thoughtful, dedicated, and caring service to the Berkeley Public Library through her service on the Board of Library Trustees, contributing her time and expertise to a new chapter of excellence for the Library; and
- WHEREAS, Judy Hunt is a second-generation Berkeleyan with deep roots in the community; and
- WHEREAS, Judy Hunt is a dedicated community leader, working as an executive with non-profits, serving as an elected Rent Board Commissioner and on the Board of Library Trustees; and
- WHEREAS, in all her endeavors and as a member of the Board of Library Trustees, Judy Hunt has advocated for people of color, low-income community members, youth, seniors, and other underserved communities; and
- WHEREAS, Judy Hunt has shared her love for libraries, learning, and literature by highlighting important books and interesting perspectives discovered through her own lifelong commitment to reading and learning; and
- WHEREAS, Judy Hunt has served on the Board of Library Trustees with a willingness to examine issues with an open mind, deep consideration, and a passion that encourages community members and colleagues to become more engaged; and
- WHEREAS, as a member of the Board of Library Trustees, Judy Hunt initiated an organizational assessment designed to identify opportunities of improvement in governance, management, staff relations, operational performance, policies, procedures and community partnerships; and
- WHEREAS, Judy's compassionate and equity-focused approach is a regular reminder for those around her that difficult problems do not have easy solutions, but require diversity of thought, careful consideration, and respectful communication and collaboration.

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that I, Jesse Arreguin, Mayor of the City of Berkeley, do hereby recognize

for her dedicated service on the Board of Library Trustees and her many contributions to the City of Berkeley.
