Quarter 1 Narrative

Amy has been in a violent relationship for years, experiencing severe physical, verbal and emotional abuse from her husband. She comes from a different cultural background than her husband, which caused a rift with her family when she began dating him. Her family completely cut off communications with her and refused to allow her back unless she ended the relationship and gave her baby. She wants her marriage to work and wants her child to grow up in a home with both parents. She wants her home to feel safe and does not want to be the first in her family to get divorced. These factors have kept her in her marriage and prevented her from leaving her situation. After several conversations with her about her options, crisis counseling, case management and safety planning, she decided to put her safety first after an incident of DV and called the police. We have begun to work on prioritizing her health, her daughter and her goals first and trying to complete her education.

Quarter 1 Narrative

In this quarter, FVLC served clients like Laura, who contacted us seeking protection from her adult son, Jason, who had been arrested after attacking and threatening to kill her, the culmination of at least a year of escalating abuse. A Crisis Intervention Specialist helped safety plan with Laura, evaluated Laura's housing and legal needs, and completed a legal intake. An FVLC attorney met with Laura over zoom and helped her prepare the forms to request a restraining order; FVLC also filed the paperwork so Laura would not have to. The attorney accomplished personal service of the Temporary Restraining Order at Santa Rita Jail through the Sheriff's Department and facilitated Jason's virtual appearance in court from Santa Rita Jail. The attorney also represented Laura in court, obtaining a 5 year Restraining Order After Hearing. Laura was tearful but grateful for FVLC's help in navigating this difficult situation.

Pathways Report Update

According to a Feb 2020 report by compiled by Disability Access Consultants (attached) more than $300,000 in remedial work and code concerns including building infrastructure, storage, and access issues was recommended for the Pathways Stair Center. Understandably, several groups have expressed interest in seeing what progress had been made in meeting these recommendations.

Unfortunately, requests from one of the members of the HWCAC for information on the status of the recommendations did not receive a complete response. We would like to suggest that a copy of the report (attached) with any written updates on the recommendation be made available to city residents and commissions. This would go a long way in helping people understand the current situation and provide full disclosure to all interested parties.

We appreciate your consideration of this request.
