

IN HONOR OF DIANE DAVENPORT AND SAYRE VAN YOUNG

WHEREAS, Diane Davenport and Sayre Van Young, both retired Berkeley Public Library reference librarians, are co-founders of the Friends of the Berkeley Public Library, a non-profit organization whose purpose is to support and expand the educational, cultural, and outreach programs of the Library; and

WHEREAS, Diane and Sayre's dedicated leadership of the Friends of the Berkeley Public Library has created a thriving and impactful organization that contributed almost half a million dollars to the Neighborhood Libraries campaign, which resulted in the renovation and rebuilding of four new branch libraries in Berkeley; and

WHEREAS, Diane and Sayre's immense passion for the library and involvement in the community have benefitted almost every demographic group in the city.

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED THAT I, TOM BATES, Mayor of the City of Berkeley, do hereby honor

Diane Davenport and Sayre Van Young

for their many contributions to the city and the community.

Tom Bates

Tom Bates
Mayor

March 11, 2014