

IN HONOR OF KEIKO NELSON

- WHEREAS, Keiko Nelson, born in Kyoto, Japan, is a multi-talented artist whose work reflects her international experiences through many forms, including fine art, murals, and sculpture; and
- WHEREAS, Keiko's most memorable and noteworthy commission is a wall mural of the Cairo University Children's Hospital in Egypt; and
- WHEREAS, Keiko has been especially active on the UC Berkeley campus, designing stage sets, costumes and outdoor installations, including the nine-foot tall bronze sculpture in Zellerbach Hall and outdoor installations at Blake House and the former UC Berkeley President's residence; and
- WHEREAS, Keiko is also involved in international events, including her roles as Visiting Tourism Ambassador for the city of Kyoto and Chair of the Art Committee of the United Nations San Francisco chapter.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED THAT I, TOM BATES, do hereby honor for her artistic contributions to the City of Berkeley and the greater Bay Area.
