

IN HONOR OF BRIAN FITCH

WHEREAS, Brian Fitch has nurtured hundreds of preschool-age children in his 25 years as a teacher at Children's Community Center Co-Operative in Berkeley; and

WHEREAS, Through hard work and dedication, Brian has provided the program with valuable continuity and reliability; and

WHEREAS, He has comforted, laughed with, and guided numerous children and parents as they begin a new school experience, enabling them to gain confidence and trust in their school community; and

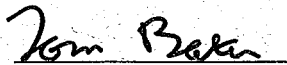

WHEREAS, Brian has told countless stories to children, creating rituals which nurture their creativity and begin a lifetime love of imagination and learning, while also encouraging children to explore the world around them through play, to develop friendships, to express their feelings and needs; and

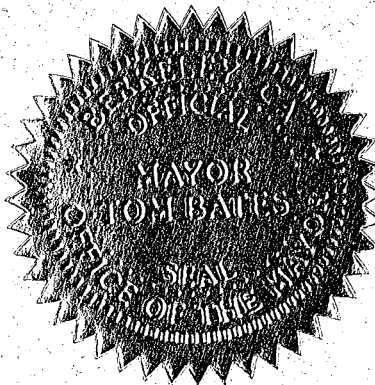

WHEREAS, Brian has worked generously supporting the many co-teachers and parents who have had the opportunity to work with him through the years.

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED THAT I, TOM BATES, Mayor of the City of Berkeley, do hereby proclaim Saturday, April 25, 2015 in the City of Berkeley in recognition and gratitude for his many contributions to the children of the City and the community.

Brian Fitch Day

Tom Bates
Mayor

April 25, 2015