

IN HONOR OF EDUARDO PINEDA

WHEREAS, Eduardo Pineda returned to painting murals after 17 years as an arts educator for SFMOMA and the Museum of the African Diaspora; and

WHEREAS, He has produced over 70 murals and public-art projects, both independently and with others, in the Bay Area and abroad since beginning in Berkeley in 1978; and

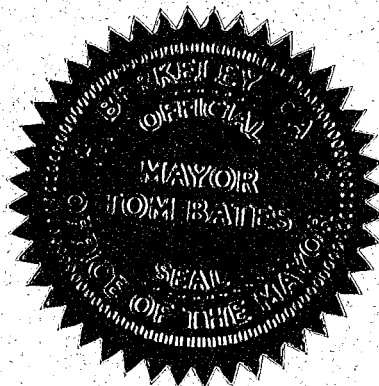

WHEREAS, He served on the Berkeley Civic Arts Commission and organized the first Arts and Education Expo; and

WHEREAS, Eduardo Pineda remains committed to sharing creativity, community arts, and education.

NOW, THEREFORE, LET IT BE RESOLVED, that I, Tom Bates, Mayor of the City of Berkeley hereby declare May 12, 2015 as in the City of Berkeley in honor of his many contributions to the arts and the arts community.
