

City of Berkeley Proclamation

IN HONOR OF CAL IN THE CAPITAL'S 50 YEARS OF LEGACY

- WHEREAS, Cal in the Capital began in 1965 to provide UC Berkeley students an opportunity to intern in Washington D.C.; and
- WHEREAS, UC Berkeley's Public Service Center is a student service organization dedicated to various programs, such as Cal in the Capital, which connects undergraduate students with service learning opportunities and internships; and
- WHEREAS, Cal in the Capital prepares 75 UC Berkeley students annually to participate in summer internships in Washington D.C.; and
- WHEREAS, Since the program's founding, over 1,608,489 hours of community service have been served by over 3,745 Berkeley students; and
- WHEREAS, Cal in the Capital serves to facilitate student leadership by connecting UC Berkeley students to Congressional offices, federal and other governmental agencies, think tanks, nonprofit organizations, media centers, private companies, and research institutes; and
- WHEREAS, Cal in the Capital students learn important skills, including how to implement social change at the national level, deepen their identities in serving the public good, and jump start their careers in public service;
- WHEREAS, Cal in the Capital seeks to ensure that its program is financially accessible to students of all financial backgrounds; and
- WHEREAS, This opportunity gives students from diverse backgrounds real life experience and professional growth; and

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that we, the Berkeley City Council, do hereby recognize that Cal in the Capital strengthens Berkeley's diverse range of students and their influence both at the local and national level and do hereby proclaim

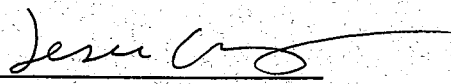

November 17, 2015 as "Cal in the Capital Day" in Berkeley
