Subject: Referral to Peace & Justice Commission: Ordinance Prohibiting the Award of City Contracts to Vendors Acting as Data Brokers or Providing Extreme Vetting Services to ICE, ~~as well as Prohibiting City Investment in such Companies~~

RECOMMENDATION

Referral to the Peace & Justice Commission to consider the attached draft ordinance.

BACKGROUND

On January 27, 2017, the President signed Executive Order 13769, commonly known as the Muslim travel ban. This order, as well as the proposed construction of a border wall, the possible termination of DACA, and the usage of social media data to target and detain immigrants across the nation, has posed serious threats to the privacy, safety, dignity, and quality of life to many members of the Berkeley Community.

On March 14, 2017, the Berkeley City Council voted to divest City funds from companies involved in the border wall construction. We must continue this effort, as well as regional and state level efforts to protect the sanctuary status of our communities.

On October 31, 2017, the Berkeley City Council passed a referral to the Peace and Justice Commission instructing the commission to examine the companies it does business with and find ways to disengage from companies found to be involved with creating databases and registries used to target immigrants and religious minorities, as well as recommending that the City of Berkeley divest from all service providers to the US ICE.

My office has now prepared an updated and refined ordinance for the commission to consider, which would prohibit the award of city contracts to vendors acting as "Data Brokers" ~~or those who provide "Extreme Vetting" services, and providing "Extreme Vetting" services and prohibit City investment in these companies.~~

It is our duty to uphold and promote values of inclusion and shared prosperity. We need longer tables, not higher walls.

FINANCIAL IMPLICATIONS:

Minimal.

ENVIRONMENTAL SUSTAINABILITY

Consistent with Berkeley's Environmental Sustainability Goals and no negative impact.

THE SANCTUARY CITY CONTRACTING ~~AND INVESTMENT~~ ORDINANCE

Whereas, President Trump issued an Executive Order on January 25, 2017 titled “Border Security and Immigration Enforcement” and created heightened fear and insecurity among many immigrant communities in Berkeley and across the nation; and

Whereas, the City Council finds that the City of Berkeley has a moral obligation to protect its residents from persecution; and

Whereas, the City Council finds that immigrants are valuable and essential members of both the California and Berkeley community; and

Whereas, the City of Berkeley has been on record since 1971 as a City of Refuge when it adopted Resolution No. 44,784-N.S.; and

Whereas, the City Council finds that a registry of individuals identified by religion, national origin, or ethnicity, in a list, database, or registry including that information, could be used by the government to persecute those individuals; and

Whereas, President Trump has repeatedly signaled that he intends to require Muslims to register in a database; and

Whereas, Trump advisors have invoked WWII Japanese-American internment as a precedent for the proposed expansion of the registry; and

Whereas, the Census Bureau turned over confidential information in 1943, including names and addresses, to help the US government identify Japanese Americans during World War II for the purpose of relocation; and

Whereas, President Trump has ordered a sweeping expansion of deportations and assigned unprecedented powers to Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) officers targeting and terrorizing immigrant communities; and

Whereas, President Trump has issued three executive orders banning entry from certain Muslim-majority countries; and

Whereas, ICE Enforcement Removal Operations issued a Request for Information on August 3, 2017, to obtain commercial subscription data services capable of providing continuous real-time information pertaining to 500,000 identities per month from sources such as State Identification Numbers; real time jail booking data; credit history; insurance claims; phone number account information; wireless phone accounts; wire transfer data; driver’s license information; Vehicle Registration Information; property information; payday loan information; public court records; incarceration data; employment address data; Individual Taxpayer Identification Number (ITIN) data; and employer records; and

Whereas, ICE has a $1.6 million contract with Thomson-Reuters, maker of popular law firm software products such as WestLaw and PeopleMap, for the above services via its CLEAR software (Consolidated Lead Evaluation and Reporting); and

Whereas, ICE has proposed a $13.6 million four-year contract with Thomson-Reuters for continuing access to CLEAR that requires CLEAR to interface with Palantir’s FALCON analytics, for the purposes of asset forfeiture investigations; and

Whereas, ICE has a $41 million contract with Palantir Technologies for the development of an intelligence system called Investigative Case Management, intended to be capable of providing information pertaining to an individual’s schooling, family relationships, employment information, phone records, immigration history, foreign exchange program status, personal connections, biometric traits, criminal records, and home and work addresses; and

Whereas, the Department of Homeland Security published a new rule on September 18, 2017, authorizing the collection of social media information on all immigrants, including permanent residents and naturalized citizens; and

Whereas, ICE has awarded Giant Oak with $3 million for three separate contracts pertaining to social media data analytics services; and

Whereas, on September 8, 2017, ICE arrested hundreds of immigrants in intentionally targeted 'sanctuary' cities; and

Whereas, ICE's "Extreme Vetting Initiative" industry day attracted large corporations like IBM, Lexis-Nexis, and Palantir in pursuit of contracts that would provide ICE with various data broker, social media threat modeling, and extreme vetting services ; and

Whereas, IBM provided census tabulating card machines (Dehomag Hollerith D-11) and punch cards to Hitler's Third Reich, and custom-designed specialized applications at each major concentration camp throughout Germany and greater Europe enabling the Nazi Party to automate identification and persecution of Jews and others during the Holocaust; now therefore

East Bay Cities Consider Banning Companies That Help ICE Track Down Immigrants From Bidding on City Contracts

Several local East Bay lawmakers are proposing ordinances that would prevent companies that gather data about immigrants and racial, ethnic, and religious groups for the federal Immigration and Customs Enforcement agency from also doing business with their cities.

The purpose, say advocates from 18 civil rights organizations that drafted the measure, is to cut off support for the Trump administration's campaign of ramping up deportations, and to undermine possible future efforts to round up people based purely on their perceived ethnicity, race, or religion.

One version of the ordinance, which is being considered at tomorrow night's Alameda City Council meeting, would bar "data brokers" who work with ICE from bidding on city contracts. The proposal would also ban any company that provides ICE with "extreme vetting" services from seeking city contracts.

On the campaign trail and in office, President Donald Trump spoke of the need to carry out "extreme vetting" and to create a "Muslim registry." Civil rights groups fear that this will lead to the violation of constitutional rights for entire ethnic, religious, national, or racial groups, who would be subjected to extra scrutiny or, worse, detention or deportation by customs officials and other law enforcement.

Under the proposed law, city funds that are invested in stocks and bonds would also be withdrawn from any companies fitting the description of a data broker or those working on "extreme vetting" systems for the federal government.

The Alameda ordinance, sponsored by Vice Mayor Malia Vella, defines a data broker as any person or company who collects information for the purposes of reselling it. There are numerous such data broker firms, but only a handful that currently provide data to ICE for immigration enforcement.

Berkeley City Councilmember Kriss Worthington introduced a similar ordinance earlier this month but it was tabled over concerns about how to implement the investment restrictions. A version of the ordinance is expected to return for a vote soon.

"This is about making sanctuary real," said Berkeley Councilmember Kate Harrison, who supports the proposal.

Berkeley is one of many California cities that has adopted sanctuary policies that are meant to protect undocumented residents by limiting how and when federal authorities can obtain information or assistance from local police.

One company fitting the description of an ICE data broker is Vigilant Solutions. The Livermore-based tech company deploys license plate scanners for law enforcement agencies around the country. Vigilant also operates a large database of license plate scans that can be used to locate and track automobiles and people. Numerous Bay Area cities use Vigilant Solutions' system to carry out mass surveillance on roads and bridges.

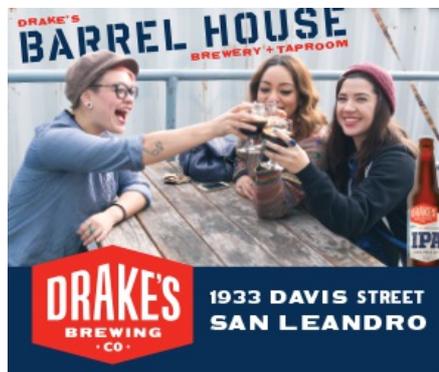

Alameda recently tabled a proposal to outfit city streets with license plate scanners over concerns that the data could end up in the hands of ICE agents.

The City of San Pablo also recently delayed voting on a project to significantly expand its existing surveillance system with additional Vigilant Solutions' cameras and software.

Tonight, San Pablo's city council will vote again on the surveillance system expansion project. But according to the proposed contract's new terms, Vigilant Solutions can't share data with ICE agents without the police department's consent.

Officials in Richmond and Oakland are also considering adopting a complete ban on companies that work as data brokers for ICE or design systems of "extreme vetting." Such laws would prevent them from entering into agreements like the one San Pablo is considering.
