Subject: Referral to Labor Commission to Establish Fair Workweek Requirements in Berkeley

RECOMMENDATION
Refer to the Labor Commission to draft an Ordinance to establish regulations governing the scheduling and hiring practices of qualifying businesses in Berkeley.

BACKGROUND
Even with sick pay and strong minimum wage laws, workers in Berkeley, particularly shift workers, still face unfair and exploitative work practices. Since the passage of the Affordable Care Act, a frequent issue that has arisen is the practice of businesses keeping their employees below 30 hours a week to avoid having to provide them health care. Workers may be forced to take “clopening” shifts, where an employee covers the closing shift one day and the opening shift the next day, giving them little time for rest. Shift workers frequently have shifts added or removed hours before they are set to begin, making scheduling impossible and creating financial difficulties for those with children who need child care.

Multiple jurisdictions have introduced measures to address these inequitable conditions, including the cities of Emeryville, San Jose, San Francisco, and New York and the state of Oregon. The strongest so far has been Emeryville’s ordinance (attached). The ordinance drafted by Labor Commission should be based on that law, strengthened with the following principles:

- The right to refuse “clopening” shifts, the right to request a flexible work arrangement, and a prohibition on refusing hours to prevent the application of benefits should apply to all employers and employees.

- The right to at least two week notice of work schedule, to decline additional hours, and to “predictability pay” if changes are made to the schedule after the 2 two week deadline should apply to all businesses of at least 25 employees with above a given number of employees, consistent with other Berkeley labor provisions.
• The requirement that new shifts first be offered to all qualified existing employees until they have at least 35 hours of work per week on average should apply to all Retail, Hotel, and Restaurant firms with at least 25 employees with above a given number of employees, consistent with other Berkeley labor provisions, as well as the City of Berkeley and the Berkeley Rent Stabilization Board.

• All requirements of the ordinance apply to the City of Berkeley and the Berkeley Rent Stabilization Board.

FISCAL IMPACTS OF RECOMMENDATION
Staff time to implement and enforce. Possible revenue from fines paid by noncompliant businesses.

ENVIRONMENTAL SUSTAINABILITY
None.
