Dear Alameda County City & County Elected Officials & Staff; Nonprofit Agency Partners; Local Foundations & Corporations; and Alameda County Residents:

I am extremely pleased to announce that as of January 2017 Eden I&R will have a new Executive Director.

Alison DeJung will take over the rewarding and challenging job of leading Eden I&R's diverse and critical programs and services that all fulfill the organization's mission of "linking people and resources."

Alison served as the agency's Deputy Director from 2012 to 2015, and has been working in a consulting role since early this year. Having worked for foundations and operating nonprofits for nearly 20 years, Alison has a breadth of experience including financial analysis and budgeting, organizational development, fundraising, and program management. Alison also holds a Master of Nonprofit Administration from the University of San Francisco.

Eden I&R's Board of Directors, Alison and I have been working together to assure a smooth executive transition that will occur at the beginning of January 2017. Should you have any questions about this change in leadership, please don't hesitate to contact me or Alison directly. I will be in the office through January 3, 2017. Alison's contact information is:

It has been a pleasure serving Alameda County for over 45 years at a variety of nonprofit organizations, as well as serving as Eden I&R's Executive Director since 1989. I thank you all for your prior partnerships, and for your continued support of Eden I&R under Alison's leadership.

I hope that you are all enjoying the holiday season and I wish you the very best throughout the New Year.

Sincerely,
