

City of Berkeley Step Three – Appeal to Superior Court

Note: According to California Vehicle Code section 40230(a), you may NOT skip the Administrative Review or Administrative Hearing and file immediately for a Superior Court ruling.

If the Hearing Examiner does not dismiss your citation and you wish to continue contesting the citation, you may appeal the decision to Superior Court. You must request an appeal within 30-calendar days of the date of the Hearing Examiner's decision. You must file for the appeal in person at the Superior Court. There is a $25.00 filing fee per citation required by the Court, which will be refunded to you if the judge rules in your favor.

Parking citation appeals may be filed at the address listed below:

Alameda County Superior Court
