

Berkeley Tuolumne Camp (BTC)

Update on the Rim Fire damage

Berkeley, California (Friday, November 1, 2013)

To-date, the City's specialized contractor is mid-way through the demolition and debris removal work at camp and they are scheduled to complete this work by the end of November 2013.

On October 30, 2013, City staff conducted a site visit of the camp area, along with the City's Tuolumne Camp Master Plan design consultant, to begin the site assessment and design process.

On October 28, 2013, the City launched an on-line survey to gather information from camp users about the feasibility of running a Berkeley Tuolumne Family Camp in the summer of 2014. The survey will end on Monday, November 4th, 2013, at 11:59pm. The City will use the results of the survey to identify options for summer camp in 2014.
