The Shorebird Park Nature Center is thrilled to host Coastal Cleanup Day on September 18, 2021!

This is an incredible volunteer opportunity and a wonderful way to get outside with friends and family to care for our bayfront habitat. Coastal Cleanup Day is sponsored by the California Coastal Commission, more information about Coastal Cleanup Day here.

When: Saturday, September 18th, 9:00am-12:00pm

Where: Shorebird Park, Berkeley Waterfront, 160 University Ave., Berkeley 94710

Who should come: All ages are encouraged to come. This is a great family event! Individuals and groups are encouraged to participate.

Registration: Participants can pre-register online or register in person on the day of the event. All participants must complete a waiver. Youth under 18 must have a waiver completed by their legal guardian.

- Pre-register online here.
- Groups: Organized groups (i.e. student organizations, service clubs, local businesses, scouting troops etc.) may also register online. Please direct individual participants to register themselves for the event. At checkout, mark 'YES' when asked if you are part of an organized group. The next prompt will allow volunteers to list the name of their group.

Event Day Details:

- Check-in and safety talks will begin at 9:00am and continue until 10:30am.
- Buckets, bags and gloves will be available for volunteers. If you are able, please help us to reduce plastic waste by bringing your own supplies:
  - Bring a bucket or reusable bag
  - Bring a lightweight pair of gardening gloves
  - Bring a filled, reusable water bottle
- After a brief safety talk, you will be assigned to a cleanup location within the Berkeley Marina.
- Please return to the Shorebird Park staging area by 12:00pm. We will collect data cards and volunteers will receive a coupon from Rubio's.
