

We have strived to reach a balance of the old and the new and a design worthy of the important site it will occupy. The colors are kept light per the design guidelines and materials proposed convey permanence and solidness.

