Section 3: Affordable Housing Requirements – Applicant Anti-Discriminatory Housing Policies Statement

BRIDGE Housing Corporation engages in the business of developing real estate, owning properties, or leasing or selling individual dwelling units in outside of California in Washington and Oregon.

BRIDGE Housing Corporation has policies in individual states that prohibit discrimination based on sexual orientation, gender identity, and/or gender expression in the sale, lease, or financing of any dwelling units enforced on every property in the state or states where we have an ownership or financial interest. BRIDGE Housing Corporation also has a national policy that prohibits discrimination based on sexual orientation and gender identity in the sale, lease, or financing of any dwelling units enforced on every property in the United States where we have an ownership or financial interest in property.

I have included a copy of our policy down below:

BRIDGE Property Management Company will not discriminate against any individual or family because of race, color, creed, national or ethnic origin or ancestry, religion, sex, sexual preference, gender identity, age, disability, handicap, familial status, military status, source of income, marital status or presence of children in a household, acquired immune deficiency syndrome (AIDS) or AIDS-related conditions (ARC), or any other arbitrary basis. No criteria will be applied or information considered pertaining to an attribute of behavior that may be imputed by some to a particular group or category.

Please contact me if you any questions about the aforementioned statement above.
