5. CHAIR'S REPORT

Chair Perezvelez welcomed Commissioner Ernest to the commission.

The Chair thanked commissioners who attended the May 3 NACOLE regional conference and the conference planning committee comprised of PRC and BART staff. Both the Chair and Mr. Norris thanked Chief Greenwood for his participation and contributions at the event.

6. PRC OFFICER'S REPORT

Status of complaints, other items:

No new complaints were filed since the last commission meeting.

A complaint (2445) was closed by staff following successful completion of mediation on April 30.

7. CHIEF OF POLICE'S REPORT

Crime, budget, staffing, training updates, other items (by Lt. Lindenau):

BPD currently is staffed at 162 officers, including those in the academy and field training.

The marketing firm hired to help with BPD recruiting efforts will soon begin working to create a website to assist with the recruiting & hiring process.

Last week, BPD staff presented and discussed the departmental budget with the City Council's Budget & Finance Committee; more discussions and meetings to follow.

On April 30, the council referred to its Public Safety Committee the Update on Various Matters and Recommendations re: Stop Data Collection, etc.

As noted earlier, Chief Greenwood attended and participated in a NACOLE Regional Conference panel regarding impacts to BPD under the new transparency law, SB1421.

The BPD Jail may experience increased activity due to the Alameda Sheriff's Office closing of a jail in Oakland.

May 23: Coffee with A Cop at Peet's Coffee on Fourth Street; 4pm -6pm.

10. NEW BUSINESS (discussion & action)

- a. Consider recommending a policy regarding asking motorists in traffic violation stops if they are on parole or probation, and conducting subsequent searches.

Motion to form a subcommittee to examine current best practices in the field with regard to probation and parole inquiries and related searches, in order that we may recommend possible changes to BPD procedures and potentially urge the City Manager to follow up on the City Council’s referral of one year ago.
