

Some types of equipment included in proposed ordinance on Controlled Equipment. Some of these types of equipment are owned by Berkeley PD and some are not. An accompanying document is part of a presentation by Oakland PD on Special Impact Munitions, that illustrates types of launchers. Oakland PD sometimes deploys in Berkeley during mutual aid operations.

BBT - Breaching and Breaking tools, used to enter buildings, vehicles, and other locked places.
<http://www.rhinovault.com/Breaching.htm>

Colt LE6920 Patrol Rifle used by BPD

Colt LE6940 Patrol Rifle used by BPD

fnamerica.com/products/less-lethal/fn-303-launcher/

FN 303® Launcher

Available for law enforcement and military.

FN303 launcher for less lethal “baton round” used by BPD.

Projectiles used with FN303 launcher.

Firearm used for crowd control and riot situation. The less lethal use is with rubber bullets or beanbag rounds. <https://www.wilsoncombat.com/less-lethal/>

Long Range Acoustic Device

Source: https://genasys.com/lrad_products/lrad-100x/

Examples of shield and helmet used during crowd control operations.

Berkeley police officers on left and right with riot batons, 2014. Officer in center has firearm that fires less lethal projectiles. Photo: Berkeleyside

HMMWV - High Mobility Multipurpose Wheeled Vehicle