

APPENDIX A STAKEHOLDERS

Nearly 30 stakeholder groups and individuals were interviewed regarding transportation in the study area. While no two provided the same message, there are many common themes. The large majority of those interviewed support increasing parking supply while improving public transit.

The following parties were interviewed as part of the stakeholder interview process:

UC BERKELEY STAKEHOLDERS

- Richard Abrams, Chair, Transportation & Parking Subcommittee, Faculty Assembly
- Associated Students UC Senate
- UC Berkeley Staff Assembly
- David Dowall, Chair, New Century Plan Advisory Committee and Chair, CAPRA, Faculty Assembly
- Students for a Livable Southside
- Stephen Gong, Berkeley Art Museum/Pacific Film Archive
- Graduate Student Assembly
- Sandra Haire, Associate Vice Chancellor, Human Resources, UC Berkeley
- Victoria Harrison, Chief, UC Berkeley Police Department
- Mark Heiser, Cal Performances, UC Berkeley
- Carol Hoffman, Manager, Work/Life Program Development, UC Berkeley
- Nadesan Permaul, Director of Parking & Transportation, UC Berkeley
- Michael Sawyer, Intercollegiate Athletics & Recreational Sports, UC Berkeley
- Lawrence Berkeley National Laboratories

CITY OF BERKELEY STAKEHOLDERS

- Polly Armstrong, Berkeley City Council
- Berkeley Chamber of Commerce
- Berkeley Cultural Trust
- Berkeley Unified School District
- Bicycle Friendly Berkeley Coalition
- Claremont/Elmwood Neighborhood Association (CENA)
- Shirley Dean, Berkeley Mayor
- Downtown Berkeley Association
- Jim Keene, Berkeley City Manager
- LeConte Neighborhood Association
- McKinley Addison Allston Grant N'hood Association (MAAGNA)
- Dona Spring, Berkeley City Council
- Telegraph Area Association
- Telegraph Avenue Business Improvement District
- Kriss Worthington, Berkeley City Council