

“My Rent Ceiling” is the Berkeley Rent Board’s
new web page and paperless
Apparent Lawful Rent Ceiling (ALRC) Notice!

Owners, managers and renters of Berkeley rent-controlled units now have the ability to look up information about their rental units on the Internet. Visit our new web page at:

www.cityofberkeley.info/myrentceiling

Easy to Use

Checking your unit info has never been easier. Just type in your address and press the “enter” key.

Review
Unit Info

“My Rent Ceiling” replaces and provides more data than our old “Rental Unit Search” webpage, including: rent ceiling, rental status, and tenancy start date.

Report
Corrections Efficiently

To report an error, click on the lightbulb icon at the bottom of the page for helpful tips. You can download and complete a fillable PDF form and e-mail it to the Rent Board.

24/7
Access

“My Rent Ceiling” is accessible through the Internet, which means that it can be used at any time — 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

Paperless

“My Rent Ceiling” is an improvement in our service to you, using technology to provide transparency, efficiency, cost savings and accessibility. See the other side of this postcard to learn about the positive changes in services.

Introducing My Rent Ceiling!

the Berkeley Rent Board's new webpage which allows owners, managers, and renters of rent-controlled units to look up their unit information currently on record

Going
Paperless

Internet access to rent-controlled unit information will replace our October mailing of ALRC notices. If you still prefer to receive a printed notice, contact our Registration Unit.

Report
Errors

Now is a good time to review your unit information, and to provide the Rent Board with any updates or to report errors. "My Rent Ceiling" can help! Having the correct information on record will help avoid confusion and unnecessary rent overcharge claims.
